

The history of 16 Days

On 25th November 1960, sisters Patria, Minerva and Maria Teresa Mirabal were murdered. 25th November was declared International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women in 1980. In June 1991 began a global campaign of 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence.

The campaign runs from the 25th Nov - 10th Dec

www.junowomensaid.org.uk

What we want to achieve

The campaign is an international campaign to challenge violence against women and girls. The colour for the campaign is orange and this was chosen to represent a brighter future.

Juno hopes to turn Nottingham and Nottinghamshire orange raising awareness of the 16 days of activism campaign as well as raising awareness of Juno and the services available.

www.junowomensaid.org.uk

Join Juno

and turn orange for the day

25th November

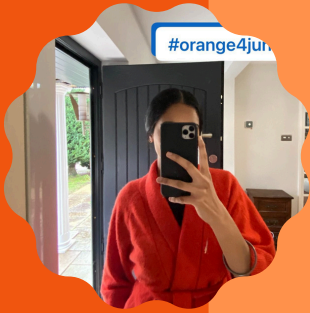

All Day

Get orange - This could include dressing up in something orange or using orange displays (lights, flags etc)

www.junowomensaid.org.uk

Ways to get involved

Get Sociable

Turn orange with your friends, family, colleagues and service users and share your efforts on social media platforms. Be sure to tag Juno and use the hashtag #Orange4Juno #16DaysActivism

Fundraise

Additional option to fundraise for Juno by asking colleagues, friends, family and service users to donate £2 for taking part in turning orange

Things to remember

Photos

Don't forget to get pictures so you can share your participation with others

Share

Share the campaign pack with your networks to encourage involvement

Socials

Don't forget to tag us on socials so we can share it

Creative

Get creative in how you decide to turn orange

Contact Us

If you're interested in taking part and would like more information or support please contact our Communications & Fundraising Manager - tasarla.larner@junowomensaid.org.uk

@junowomensaid

www.junowomensaid.org.uk

Safety. Support. Strength.

Empowering women and children to live free from abuse